

Small orders may be agreed upon by handshake. In that case, the agreement includes the budget offered by us as well as the offered services. For larger projects a contract will be concluded, which is also possible for small projects if desired by the customer.

Working process

- Images and graphics / logos will be provided by the customer at the start of the project in highest quality (EPS or PSD).
- Revision and correction after presentation of the first version and small changes in the final approval stage are included in the price.
- Translation of texts, if required, will be provided by the customer and will be transmitted digitally.
- For data exchange, the FTP-server of Halsundbeinbruch Film will be used. The customer will get a personal access with password.
- After conclusion of the project, all data will be saved by Halsundbeinbruch Film on secure LTO-Ultrium-tapes, making them reusable in the long run. This service is included in the price. But we don't furnish any guarantee against loss of data.
- By paying the price agreed upon, the customer acquires any right of use of the end product, as stated in the offer or the contract. Not included are rights to performance of music and its sister societies worldwide.
- Halsundbeinbruch Film maintains the copyright of all its works and their parts. We are entitled to mention Halsundbeinbruch Film in the end product, in commonly accepted way. All works and products can be used as reference by us. If the end product is made for internal communication, it will be used only upon agreement with the customer.
